英語の発音のスキルアップ

Students will learn about the different sounds that make up the spoken language of English and how to produce them. In order to speak English fluently, it is important to learn correct pronunciation as well as the stress, intonation and rhythm of English speech.

I am researching effective ways to teach natural English pronunciation to Japanese learners.

先生からメッセージ

English is becoming more and more important as a tool for communication both in Japan and throughout the world. At Koeki, you will have the chance to improve your speaking, listening, reading and writing skills through the courses we provide. You will have great opportunities for learning and studying abroad. But the progress you make in English will be down to how much effort you put in. I'm looking forward to helping you achieve your study goals.
